

PRESS RELEASE

Covid variant Omicron shifted 15th PRINTPACK INDIA from March to May:

On 17th January 2022, IPAMA had convened the 121st Meeting of its Governing Council virtually, which was attended by majority of its members. The most important point, to organize the 15th PRINTPACK INDIA, was discussed and deliberated. Keeping in view the prevailing conditions and recommendations of the Exhibitors, Associate Partners and in consultation with the officials of India Expo Centre, the Governing Council had decided to postpone the Exhibition for 1 or 2 months and organise it at India Expo Centre from May 26-30, 2022 which appears a safe period for the Exhibitors and all other concerned parties, including the Business Visitors who are the backbone of any Exhibition.

The 15th Edition of PRINTPAK INDIA Exhibition was scheduled to be organised at India Expo Centre from March 11-15, 2022. IPAMA had also finalised various arrangements well in time for the largest Show in the country on Printing and Packaging Industry. However, due to sudden increase in COVID-19 and Omicron cases in different States, the Office Bearers and IPAMA Secretariat officials had discussed to the senior representatives of the Exhibitors and the Associate Partners to ascertain their views relating to the organisation of the Exhibition on the scheduled dates. Majority of them had recommended to postpone the same for a couple of Months, but they were not keen to postpone it for a longer period.

The dates for availing of the Discounts and the eligibility criteria were also revised, as under: -

- i) For existing exhibitors, to avail early bird discounts, 30% Payment as Second Instalment, must be transferred in IPAMA's bank account by 21st March 2022. And balance 50% payment on or before 10th May 2022.
- ii) For a new exhibitor, remittance of 50% payment in IPAMA's account is must to avail Motivational and Covid discounts by 21st Feb 2022. And balance 50% payment on or before 10th May 2022. No new exhibitor is eligible to avail aforesaid discounts after 21st Feb 2022.

Note: Discount is subject to IPAMA Membership

Top players of the industry had assured to remain present in 15th PRINTPACK INDIA. The forthcoming exhibition will be a unique, highly innovative and a trend setter as this will happen after the Covid era. It will offer an excellent opportunity for interaction with the members of the Printing & Packaging fraternity for entering into Joint Ventures, Collaborations and Sourcing of jobs.

This time, Let's do it!
