

PRESS RELEASE

On the Last day, 55 Companies secured their early bird discount:

On Wednesday, Dec 15, 2021:

IPAMA gratefully acknowledges Industry's overwhelming response to 15th PRINTPACK INDIA, slated to be held from March 11 – 15, 2022. 80% area already booked. 6,000 m² is in the pipeline. Major players have already confirmed their bookings and deposited requisite amount.

Dec 15, 2021 was the last day to avail early bird discount in India's most reputed event of Printing and Packaging Industry. The Indian Printing Packaging & Allied Machinery Manufacturers' Association (IPAMA) had announced the revised dates of 15th PRINTPACK INDIA Exhibition, only in the month of October 2021, in consultation with the Exhibitors, Business Visitors and the allied partner Associations/Federations. In a limited time period, tremendous response was received from the industry. With a view to extending financial relief to the Industry in COVID-19 period, IPAMA had brought down the space charges to the lowest level so that more and more companies, particularly from the MSME sector, could participate in the Exhibition and give a momentum to their business. Simultaneously, it had also announced various discounts, including the Early Bird Discount @ Rs.1000 per square meter, to all the Exhibitors. The last date for availing of the Early Bird Discount expired on 15th December 2021.

Before the expiry of the last date of the Early Bird Discount, 55 companies had booked their space by remitting the requisite space charges. This shows the craze and the importance of the Show amongst the Indian companies, who are engaged in manufacturing printing, packaging and allied machinery, for participation in the Show.

The past editions each had provided a unique platform to the Exhibitors for displaying the latest technology and the high-quality products. For the convenience of the Exhibitors, IPAMA has provided the facility of submitting online applications for space booking. More than 80 per cent of the space has already been booked.

The process of allotment of Stalls is going on. Out of the total bookings 407, more than 200 companies have already been allotted stall numbers and conveyed through Emails and WhatsApp messages in accordance with their Priority Numbers. Within the next few days, the process of allotment of 400 stalls will be done.
